College of Health Science and Technology, Shanghai Jiao Tong University School of Medicine

To Regis Faculdade Ebramec,

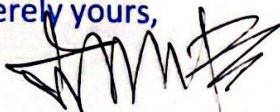

As the dean of College of Health Science and Technology, Shanghai Jiao Tong University School of Medicine, please allow me to convey my congratulations on the success of the XII Brazilian Congress of Chinese Medicine and III International Congress. The college is located in Ruijin Hospital, Shanghai, China.

First of all, I would like to express my sincere respect for the contributions made by the Brazilian College of Chinese Medicine. The college has played an important role in the international dissemination of traditional Chinese medicine (TCM), promoting the popularization and spread of Chinese medicine culture in Brazil, and making positive contributions to the development of TCM worldwide.

In the future, I look forward to the Brazilian College of Chinese Medicine achieving greater breakthroughs in its educational capabilities, academic influence, and curriculum development. The college has made significant contributions to academic exchanges between China and Brazil, and I hope that it can further strengthen its collaboration with internationally renowned Chinese medicine schools to promote the international development of TCM.

Last but not the least, I sincerely wish a successful conclusion of the XII Brazilian Congress of Chinese Medicine and the III International Congress of Faculdade EBRAMEC! This is an important academic exchange platform that will inject new momentum into the development of TCM. I hope that the scholars can share their latest research achievements and ideas here, and work together to promote the development of TCM!

Sincerely yours,

Prof. HU Yiqun, M.D.
